

How to Register for a FIG Course

A FIG Course in Australia

- Gymnastics Australia will advertise all FIG courses:
 - on the GA website
 - in the Technical Member Bulletin
- Complete the Expression of Interest Application form and return this to education@gymnastics.org.au
- GA will email you to advise if you have been accepted on the course. GA will rank applicants. Numbers on a FIG course can be up to 20 participants.
- Course costs vary depending on the location of the course. You will be provided with 2 options:
 - Accommodation, meals and travel in the host city
 - Meals and travel in the host city only
- Participants will be responsible for travel costs to and from the host city.

A FIG Course in New Zealand

- Gymnastics Australia will advertise all FIG courses:
 - on the GA website
 - in the Technical Member Bulletin
- Complete the Expression of Interest Application form and return this to education@gymnastics.org.au
- GA will email you to advise if you have been accepted on the course. GA will rank applicants based on eligibility and priority. Expected numbers on a NZ based course are 5 participants.
- Course costs vary depending on the location of the course. You will be provided with 2 options:
 - Accommodation, meals and travel in the host city
 - Meals and travel in the host city only
- Participants will be responsible for travel costs to and from the host city.

A FIG Course in Other Countries

- All FIG courses are advertised on the FIG website at <http://www.fig-docs.com/website/academy/Academy-schedules.pdf>
- Contact GA at education@gymnastics.org.au if you are interested in attending a course in another country.
- GA will make an application to FIG and advise if you have been successful.
- Participants will need to pay course costs to GA prior to departure to the course.
- Participants will be responsible for flight costs to and from the host city.